CLASS EXERCISES A HUGE SUCCESS

IMMENSE CROWD AT CLEVER PRODUCTION, "HICKS AT COLLEGE."

PRINCIPALS SUPPORTED BY A STRONG CAST

Other Numbers on Program Were Enjoyed by Audience—Athletic Letters Are Given.

Not in many days has Maryville seen as clever a production as "Hicks at College," given by the graduating class at their class exercises at the High school auditorium last night. The crowd attending the program was immense, every available space in the auditorium being filled.

The first quality of the actors and actresses in the play was their naturalness, which was remarked by many in the audience. From Hiram Hicks, the Braino Man, impersonated by Martin Lewis, to Lily, maid at the quarters, a part taken by Miss Alta Doyle, there was not one poor character.

Tom Horton, in real life, Howard Martin, is gifted with ability to write clever verses. Hiram Hicks, the Braino man, wants Mr. Horton to take a position advertising the far-famed breakfast food, but is unable to persuade Horton to leave college. To accomplish this end he enlists the services of Flora Bell Martyn, a waitress at the "Pal," cleverly impersonated by Miss Mary Wooldridge, and of Professor Adam Biddicut of the University, characterized by Eugene Martin.

Complications Arise.

The complications in the situation arise from the fact that the Professor is deaf, misunderstands the name of the Horton whom Hicks wishes "flunked" and begins to harass Fritz Jordon with lessons and papers, preparatory to forcing him to leave school. The part of Fritz Jordon, Horton's chum and a basket ball star, was excellently taken by Robert Groppe.

The aid of Flora Bell is much more productive, however, and she succeeds in bringing about a half-way engagement by catching Tom at a time when he is practicing on a speech to be made to his real sweetheart. June Grant, which part was charmingly taken by Miss Ruth Peterman. Horton has said part of this speech to Ruth and has been accepted providing Northern wins the game.

The great basketball game between Northern University and Wishigan is to be played and at the last moment, Professor Biddicut refuses to allow Jordon to play on account of his grades. Horton is hailed as the "hero of the hour" much against his will, as he will be engaged to two girls if Northern is successful. He plays, however, and throws the basket that wins the game for Northern.

Relieved From Quandary.

He is relieved from his quandary by Hicks, the Braino man, who asks Flora Bell to marry him. Flora Bell accepts and breaks the news to Horton, who goes to June and is forgiven. Mr. Hicks clears matters entirely by announcing that Horton may stay in

TENT SHOW IS HERE

"Uncle Tom's Cabin," Will Be Given in its Entirety by the Terry Company Tonight.

Terry's big production of Harriett Beecher Stowe's famous slave play is to be given under canvas at the show grounds on East Third street this evening.

The presentation of this American classic is an interesting one, and is given in its entirety, just as depicted by the author. The company that Terry carries this season is the best ever, having spared no expense to make the company one of the strongest entour.

The cast is made up of the very best of talent, the scenic and electrical effects complete; in fact, the show as put on by the Terry company is conceded by press and pulpit as a splendid presentation of the National drama. A magnificent parade at noon today topped off the coming of Terry's Uncle Tom's Cabin show. A band concert by the combined bands of the company will be given at the Court House Square at 7 p. m. The doors will open at 7:30 p. m., and the curtain will rise at 8:15 o'clock.

The curtain falls on a happy and most satisfied crowd of college students, with Horton composing thus in the interests of Braino:

"For it's never too late to yearn,
As the sage must find later or soon,
Hicks will root for old Northern with Flora,
And I will eat Braino with June."

Minor Parts Well Done.

A criticism of the play would not be at all just without mentioning the college girls and boys who did much to make the play the great success that it was. Among the boys, Harry Holmes as "Percy Robbins," Harold Adle as "Adolph Hopkins," Ernest Alexander as "Bastian Briggs," Ray Maul as "Josh Anderson," and Eugene Yehle as "Charlie Padlet," reporter for the Daily Shriek, did splendid work, each one adding a humorous bit to the comedy.

The college girls, Alma Mahoney as "Polly Porter," Leeta Wray as "Claire Angelina Jones," Elfrieda Linville as "Susy Spriggins," Lillian Carpenter as "Daisy Armstrong," and Maud Helpley as "Fluff Findley," were all good in their parts and were the principals in seeral laughable scenes.

"Mrs. Cabb," the housekeeper at the quarters, was well presented by Miss Marie Landfather and was in a creditable part of an act with "Lily," maid at the quarters.

Other Numbers Given.

Besides the play several numbers were given by the graduates. Miss Mary Wooldridge played a pleasing piano solo, and Miss Marie Landfather presented the class gift, a stage curtain for the auditorium, in the name of the class of 1917. The acceptance was made by Supt. J. M. McDonald, who complimented the class highly on its scholarship and on the general high character of its members.

A pianologue, "An Old Sweetheart of Mine," was excellently rendered by Miss Mary Crowson. After the class prophecy, cleverly given by Misses Marie Wright, Cassie Abshire, Mildred Wamsley, Leola Frede, Velma Appleby, Martha James, Leta Doyle, Loma Bower and Wave Hulet, the presentation of the school letter to members of the athletic teams was made by Coach L. J. Shultz, teacher of Manual Training and Director of Athletics of the Maryville High school.

A Record Cattle Sale.

O. F. Wilson returned Thursday evening from Kentland, Ind., where he attended the Hereford cattle sale of Warren T. McCray. The sale was a record breaker, seventy-five head selling for $131,775, an average of $1,757 each. The top animal of the sale was sold for $17,000 to a wealthy Canadian stockman. The highest price paid for a cow was $5,000, and the lowest figure of the sale was $1,000. The bull that brought $17,000 is a half brother of Morris Fairfax, head of the O. F. Wilson & Son herd.—Burlington Junction Post.

16 Pounds of Butter.

In addition to the profitable flock of pure bred White Wyandottes, there is another source of real income at the place of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Nicholas in Burlington Junction. Last week Mrs. Nicholas made 16 pounds of butter from the milk of this one cow, which brought over $5 of real American money. If there's a bossie in the whole country that can beat that we'd like to hear of it.—Burlington Junction Post.

MICHELIN

Extra Mileage You Can See and Measure

The extra thickness of the Michelin Tread—due to extra rubber and fabric—means additional mileage.

Especially is this true since every ounce of rubber and fabric is the toughest that money, skill and experience can produce.

Michelins give so much mileage that they'd be economical even if high priced. But they're not high priced.

MOTHER SAID TRY IT

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Mrs. Copner after Doctor's Failed.

Cincinnati, Ohio.— "I want you to know the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was in such bad health from female troubles that I could hardly get off my bed. I had been doctoring for a long time and my mother said, 'I want you to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.' So I did, and it has certainly made me a well woman. I am able to do my house work and am so happy as I never expected to go around the way I do again, and I want others to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me." —Mrs. JOSIE COPNER, 1668 Harrison Ave., Fairmount, Cincinnati, Ohio.

No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from choice roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.
